v.

David Deloza, Appellant

We granted review in this matter on August 13, 1997, and deferred further action including briefing, pending consideration and disposition of related issues in People v. Hendrix, S055275, and People v. Nelson, S053008. People v. Hendrix was filed on August 18, 1997, and is now final. The court has now decided that the instant matter should be designated as the lead case in which to determine the relationship, if any, between the phrase "not committed on the same occasion, and not arising from the same set of operative facts" in Penal Code section 1170.12, subdivision (a)(6), and the principles embodied in Penal Code section 654.

Appellant is directed to serve and file a Brief on the Merits limited to this issue on or before December 1, 1997. Additional briefing is to be served and filed in a timely fashion. (California Rules of Court, rule 29.3(a).)

The California Appellate Project is appointed to represent appellant in this proceeding.
